

Career Transition and Outplacement

What does Career Transition support look like with Listgrove?

The prospect of finding employment in today's industrial markets can be daunting: even the most experienced individuals question the best way to source the right opportunities, as well as how to promote themselves as a candidate of choice.

At Listgrove, we have developed an outplacement service designed to support those operating across the plastics, packaging, chemical, petrochemical and recycling sectors. For over five decades, we have focused our energy on these markets and have developed an unrivalled network of industry contacts and long-term business relationships.

Our mentors provide your employees with practical, flexible and responsive outplacement services, that deliver success in today's fast-paced and complex job market. Listgrove's HR and Recruitment specialists have assisted many individuals to secure new and exciting job opportunities across the globe.

What our Clients say...

'Jane Edwards provided the support, advice and direction that I needed at a most critical time. She opened up my eyes to a world of opportunities and I would definitely recommend Jane to anyone looking for Outplacement Services. She is able to draw upon vast "senior level" HR experience in order to provide a fantastic professional service.'

'My experience of Outplacement with Listgrove was very successful. Providing an experienced, professional and structured service, helped to construct marketing and search strategies, which led to a fruitful outcome. The support provided also helped to cope with the emotional rollercoaster, which inevitably goes with the search process for that employer/employee match. My consultant's energy, drive, professionalism and humour leave me in no doubt, to recommend Listgrove as an Outplacement service provider to any organisation or individual looking to match future expectations and needs with market opportunity.'

'It can be a very lonely existence when you have been working all your life and suddenly find yourself out of work. With Listgrove's outplacement there is no time limit and professional support is given by their consultants until you find a new job. Listgrove will give you help and advice in developing a professional CV, support in building up your own personal network and the development of an effective action plan. Finding a new job can be a very long and daunting process and I found the help and support I got from Listgrove invaluable.'
